

Boy Shot an Officer.

William McGinnis, division officer in the Vermont industrial school, Vergennes was shot July 18, by Frank Ladri, committed from St. Johnsbury. The bullet entered the upper posterior left thigh and lodged above the left knee. The wound is considered dangerous although McGinnis was resting comfortably at last reports. Later Ladri was lodged in the jail where he awaits examination. The revolver Ladri used was one he had stolen from the night watchman's room.

Ladri is a Summerville boy who is serving out his sentence for stealing a bicycle.

Clipped By:

newbury

Sun, Nov 10, 2019