

Tuthili Transferred to Rutland

Following the suggestion of States' Attorney M. P. Maurice, application was made by John E. Weeks of the penal board to Gov. Charles W. Gates for the immediate transfer from the Vermont Industrial school, Vergennes, to the house of correction of Glendon Tuthili and Austin Newell, two of the boys who recently ran away from the school, and the boys were taken Friday to Rutland.

George Archer, who escaped from the school in company with the Tuthill boy, will remain at the school as he is in a serious physical condition. He was a patient in the hospital ward when he made his escape.

Clipped By:

newbury

Sun, Nov 10, 2019