

George Burke, 20 years old, who escaped from the Vermont Industrial School at Vergennes last Sunday night with Fred Worcester, was arrested after he left Worcester at Florence and has been placed in the county jail in Rutland to await hearing on a charge of assault. The alleged assault was committed in Pittsford where an official from the Industrial school found Burke and brought him to Rutland. Worcester was taken back to Vergennes the first of the week. Burke was committed to the Vergennes school from Pownal.

Clipped By:

newbury

Sun, Nov 10, 2019